6. Monthly Community Reports
 - a. Sgt. Bob Berndt reported on Salida crime stats. 29 traffic stops/2 burglaries. Also gave an update on National Night Out/ August 2, 2022
 - b. California Highway Patrol – Officer Eric Moore reported on a major hit and run.
 - c. Stanislaus County Supervisor – Supervisor Withrow shared information about the BOS's executive retreat and changes in prison vs jail.
 - d. Salida Fire Department – SFPD Board Chairman, Mark Stone explained due to staffing shortages the ongoing negotiations with the City of Modesto for fire coverage in Salida are continuing. SFPD will remain its own municipality, with its own board in charge of all finances and will pay Modesto a fee for fire service coverage similar to Oakdale and Ceres. Salida firefighters will become employees of Modesto so they can make more money.
 - e. Salida Sanitary District – Brad Johnson
 - f. Nick W. Blom Salida Regional Library – Shared the free lunch program, various online programs for kids and Zoom activities. Check Salida Library website for additional information.

7. Information Items – Presentation from StanRTA on their Master Plan and discussed bus routes that will be cut for Gregori High school students.
8. Action Items - None
9. Council Concerns/Comments/Suggestions for Future Agenda Items.
